

- Chief Technical Officer
- Medical Equipment

We are looking to appoint a CTO who can:

- Develop and lead a world class technology team
- Create a technical roadmap aligned with the product roadmap
- Provide though leadership within the technology community
- Organise and manage R&D projects
- Provide technical direction and oversea all aspects of system design, development and NPI (hardware, firmware software and systems)
- Formalise and refine development and related processes and be a champion of Waterfall and Agile methodologies
- Experience of managing an IP portfolio, including writing and filing new patents is a prerequisite

Cambridge, UK

£120,000 - £150,000 + Executive Package

With approximately 10 patents, our client is concerned with real-time, high-end data acquisition, monitoring and analysis.

They are regarded as the market leader in their field and are poised to become one of the fastest growing medical tech firms in the UK.

For more information contact info@alliance-consulting.co.uk

ALLIANCE CONSULTING

Delivering World-Class Talent Since 2003

